

LONG ISLAND AQUATIC CLUB &
LONG ISLAND SWIM SCHOOL

Once every 4 years...

The world's best athletes come together to compete on the biggest stage. This July the Paris Olympics will give these athletes the chance to fulfill lifelong dreams in pursuit of greatness! For swimmers, the road to Paris started in lesson pools like ours many years ago. Their chance to qualify starts June 15th in Indianapolis.

What are the Olympic Trials?

The USA Olympic Swim Team is one of the most difficult teams to qualify for. The "pool" of talent is deep, and only 52 athletes will qualify for the Olympics. From June 15-23, roughly 900 athletes will race in Indianapolis to earn their spot. The top 2 finishers from each event will qualify to represent Team USA in Paris this July.

Why are we excited?

Long Island Swim School is the teaching arm of the nationally ranked Long Island Aquatic Club. We are thrilled to have 5 athletes representing LIAC at Olympic Trials this year! These athletes have worked hard to be able to compete at the highest level, and we wish them the best of luck as they race towards their dreams!

How can you watch?

The Olympic Trials are airing on NBC and Peacock. You can also follow the action on USASwimming.org

Whether your child dreams of learning to float, jumping into the deep end, or joining the swim team... from Beginner to Olympian, Long Island Swim School and LIAC are prepared to help them reach their goals.
